

GLACIE 2012 COOPERATIVE LEARNING CONFERENCE VENDOR INFORMATION

GLACIE (Great Lakes Association for Cooperation in Education) is pleased to invite your organization as a vendor to participate in the 27th annual Cooperative Learning Conference this May in Toronto, Ontario. Over 200 elementary, secondary and post-secondary teachers, presenters and organizers will be in attendance. Vendors are an integral and exciting part of our conference. Participants look forward to visiting the vendor area and learning more about available resources and products that they can readily use in their classrooms.

Our 2012 conference will take place at the Toronto Don Valley Hotel and Suites on May 24 and 25, 2012. The Reflections Room will be used as our exhibit area, which is closely located by the registration desk and main dining/presentation rooms. We are able to lock and secure this room at night.

Dr. Spencer Kagan will be doing a pre-conference event all day on Thursday, May 24 as well as having his own materials on display for the two-day event. We ask that you do not bring Spencer Kagan's materials if you distribute them as he will be having those items and books on hand. There is a fee of $50 per six-foot long table per day that you would require for your display and setup. This fee is payable in advance of the conference and does not include conference registration, meals or parking.

Further conference information can be found on our website at www.glacie.ca. Please confirm your participation by completing the vendor application form and forwarding it along with your cheque (payable to GLACIE) to: GLACIE, P.O. Box 376, Cannington, Ontario, L0E 1E0.

We would be pleased to include any of your promotional materials in our attendee bags if they are received by Friday, April 27. In the past, our vendors have been very generous in donating door prizes which are always well received. These are distributed at our conference welcome/opening remarks and acknowledgement of the prize donor is given. Please consider this option and we would be pleased to ensure its inclusion.
